

2nd multimorbidity symposium: a complex truth for patients, physicians and policymakers

Date: November 7th, 2022

Location: Het trippenhuis Amsterdam / Hybrid

08.45 – 09.00	Welcome
09.00 – 09.15	Introduction – Rikje Ruiten & Silvan Licher Chair of the day: Barbara van Munster
09.15 – 10.00	Chris Salisbury Multimorbidity, perspective from a General Practitioner.
10.00 – 10.15	Q&A panel discussion
10.15 – 10.30	Junior Speaker: Deirisa Lopes Barreto VBHC and multimorbidity from a rheumatologic point of view.
10.30 – 10.45	Junior speaker: Denise Hanssen Multimorbidity from a psychological point of view
10.45 – 11.15	Coffee break
11.15 – 12.00	Rene Melis Resilience, frailty and multimorbidity from a researchers perspective.
12.00 – 12.15	Q&A panel discussion
12.15 – 13.15	Lunch break with posters.
13.15 – 14.00	Laura Fratiglioni Multimorbidity: how to change current practice?
14.00 – 14.15	Q&A panel discussion
14.15 – 14.30	Junior Speaker: Harini Sathanapally Priorities of patients with multimorbidity regarding treatment and health outcomes
14.30 – 15.00	Multimorbidity, perspective from the Dutch Patient Federation. Results from a population based survey among patients with multimorbidity.
15.00 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 16.15	Round table discussion with different stakeholders: how to move on?  Robin Peeters, President Dutch Society for Internal Medicine Dutch Society for General Practitioners (tba) Patrick Jeurissen, Scientific Advisor Dutch Ministry of Health, Welfare and Sport Marieke Schuurmans, Chief Healthcare Organisation, Dutch Healthcare Authority
16.15 – 16.30	Barbara van Munster, wrap up
16.30	Closing remarks and drinks, Rikje Ruiten & Silvan Licher